

MCNAIRY CHAMBER & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

BENEFITS WITH YOUR INVESTMENT

- You have a business stake in the community ... your investment in the chamber means an investment in the community.
- Free Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, publicity in both county newspapers, and coverage on Chamber's social media pages.
- The Chamber distributes an annual McNairy Magazine that includes the membership directory as well as having the directory listed on the Chamber website.
- The Chamber honors one Chamber Business of the Month and Industry of the Month, each month.
- Chamber members are given the opportunity to market their business through a variety of sponsorship and advertising opportunities.
- The Chamber partners with organizations that aid in the expansion and growth of local businesses such as the TN Small Business Association, SBA, and SWTDD.
- Opportunity to serve on Board of Directors or committee(s). Allowing direct impact upon the future of your community while promoting your business.
- Being housed in the McNairy County Visitor's Center allows the Chamber to furnish newcomers and tourists with packets and brochures regarding members, and local attractions.
- Networking opportunities are provided on a regular basis through the Chamber, with events such as Chamber Coffees, McNairy Leadership for Adults and Youth, and ribbon cuttings with local businesses.
- Small business meetings available monthly with the #ShopMcNairy campaign in place to aid small businesses and encourage the community to shop local.
- The Chamber acts as a liaison between the business community and local, state, and federal government officials when government affairs affect local business.
- When needed the Chamber will address matters that affect the local economy and business. Your investment in the chamber helps create and retain jobs which maintains a pro-business climate.
- Job Fairs are available through the Chamber to connect businesses with potential employees.
- Recommendations and referrals are made to your business, when applicable.
- The Chamber plays an active role in the community by supporting festivals, events, and county-wide programs.
